Course objectives:

The aim is to familiarize the students with daily practise of a civil law judge by means of shadowing a specific judge during a short traineeship.

Requirements on student

- the necessity to adjust to the schedule of the judge
- an active approach
- an interest for practical application of law

Content

This course consists in organizing traineeships with individual civil law judges from the district of Pilsner County Court and Usti nad Labem County Court. During the traineeship, each student is shadowing a judge and is able to understand his/her daily practise including the principles of court file management. Students are furthermore able to consult the judge regarding the advance preparation for the hearing, the legal analysis of the case and the decision-making process. Students are also consulting the individual legal issues which they encounter during their traineeship with the tutor of the course.
